The Pirate's Ship is a remarkable wooden play structure Barbara custom designed for the Ritz Carlton Hotel in West Palm Beach, Florida. Positioned by the ocean, this play structure complements the sparkling ocean view while providing endless adventure for young guests in the two- to five-year-old range. Unlike bland, cookie-cutter playground structures for preschoolers, Pirate's Ship captures youngster's attention immediately with its iconic nautical shape and enchanting colors. Upon closer inspection, families will find a charming play space to let their imaginations run free.

This structure meets ASTM F1487 Standards for Public Use Playground Equipment and the 2010 Americans with Disabilities Act.
